

2020-21 Health Insurance Subsidy Eligibility Policy

Graduate student eligibility for the health insurance subsidy has three threshold levels: Master's, DMA, and PhD. Levels are set at the lowest standard 9-month stipend for each. The minimum academic year threshold is $12,500 for Master's, $19,000 for DMA, and for PhDs: $20,833 over 9 months -- or $25,000 over 12 months. Students must also receive a full academic year tuition scholarship to qualify.

- ❖ Master's students must be in their first 5 years of study; DMA in the first 4.5 years, and PhD students in the first 8 years to be eligible. Ineligible: Architecture, Law, and Mendoza grad students.

The 2020-21 health insurance subsidy is 100% of the premium. Students are billed for health insurance in July and have until the waiver date to make their decision regarding participation in the plan. In early October, the Graduate School will apply a $2,792 subsidy to eligible students' accounts. Those eligible who wave the plan will receive a $200 credit on their student account. NOTE: The Office of Student Accounts knows the subsidy or credit is forthcoming. They do not expect students to pay AY health insurance charges before October.

Students who plan to graduate in January have the option to enroll in insurance for the fall term only. Those transitioning to a job* can then enroll in their employer's plan as of January 1. Students must contact Connie Morrow in Health Services (insurancequestions@nd.edu) to indicate fall only enrollment by the November deadline.

- There is no financial penalty for enrolling in the fall only plan.
- Those who enroll in fall only but return in spring (do not graduate) will be automatically enrolled in the 12-month insurance plan in the spring. The fall only charge will be removed, and the full $2,265 premium charge added.
- ❖ *NOTE: students who finish and/or leave the University early at any point in the fall or spring semester may qualify for a partial (prorated) health insurance subsidy based on the number of fully funded stipend pays they receive (i.e. stipend ends any time before 12/31/20 or 5/15/21 -- leaving anytime between late August and mid-December or January and mid-April).

Students are required to have insurance. Those that wish to purchase the 12-month plan may do so. Any questions, please contact Kelly Donndelinger (1-8422) or Brian Flaherty (1-2705).
